

THE ENEMY

MCQs (1 mark)

1. Sadao found upon examining the unconscious man lying on beach that he was
 - a) A British soldier
 - b) Blood flowed flesh
 - c) A black man
 - d) their enemy
2. _____ confirmed that the wounded white man was American prisoner of war
 - a) White shin of the face
 - b) Golden hairs on the skull of the man
 - c) Lettering on the battered cap of the wounded white man
 - d) Golden beard of the wounded man
3. Sadao and Hanna felt _____ toward the wounded white man
 - a) merciful
 - b) compassionate
 - c) curiously repulsed
 - d) kindness
4. What reason did Sadao give for handing the American prisoner of war to Japanese police?
 - a) Care nothing for him
 - b) he is my enemy
 - c) All Americans are my enemy
 - d) All of the above
5. Sadao could not hand over the American to Police because
 - a) he is wounded
 - b) his face seemed foolish
 - c) he is a common fellow
 - d) all of the above
6. The Japanese couple thought of _____ in not handing over the American to police
 - a) servant might be not convinced of their decision
 - b) future of children might be endangered
 - c) Sadao's position might be endangered
 - d) all of the above
7. Sadao and Hanna kept American in...
 - a) guest house
 - b) Sadao's father's room
 - c) common room
 - d) servant quarter
8. Hanna did not want Sadao to wash American because she
 - a) didn't want that Sadao be unnecessary tired of washing
 - b) wanted to do it herself
 - c) didn't want Sadao to do such work as washing

- d) all of the above
9. Sadao thought of _____ for American soldier.
- operation
 - medication
 - letting the wound heal itself
 - all of the above
10. When Hanna asked her to wash American Prisoner Yumi said that...
- she was a poor person
 - it was not her work
 - she had nothing to do with it
 - All of the above
11. Hanna reacted to Yumi's refusal to wash American by
- trying to explain their intention
 - Feeling compelled to wash American alone by herself
 - Responding with dignity and feeling superior to Yumi
 - all of the above
12. _____ when she saw the open deep wound of American prisoner.
- Hanna's face became that of the colour of sulphur
 - Hanna clapped her hands to her mouth and went out of room
 - Hanna vomited
 - All of the above
13. "..... I am not doing this for my pleasure.i do not know why I am doing." He was
- helping Hanna in house hold work
 - operating General
 - operating American
 - all of the above
14. According to the American Professor of Anatomy, surgeon's cardinal sin is.....
- indifference to human body
 - ignorance of human body
 - lack of sympathy for human body
 - apathy for human body
15. The messenger came to the doctor to.....
- meet him
 - get himself checked
 - to inform about the General's pain
 - All of these

Short answer type questions (2 marks)

- What made Sadao impatient and irritable with the man while operating upon him?
- What was she thinking when she saw the piteous thin face of American while she was giving him anesthesia?
- What made Hanna think that Japanese army might be cruel?
- What made Hanna think that American would have been tortured?
- What was old gardener's thoughts about Sadao treating Tom?

3 marks questions

1. What plan did the old General suggest for getting rid of the man?
2. Why did Dr Sadao tell the General everything about the man he had operated upon?
3. Why had Hana to wash the wounded man herself?
4. How was the plan of the prisoner's escape executed?

5 Long Answer Type Question – 5 marks

1. Do you agree that 'Hana was a loving, caring, devoted and obedient wife who was quite anxious about her husband's wellbeing, position and reputation. If yes/No give reasons.
2. How can you say that Dr Sadao's father was a Japanese to the core?

The Enemy

MCQs

MCQ: The Enemy
1	C	6	D	11	D
2	C	7	B	12	D
3	C	8	C	13	C
4	D	9	D	14	D
5	D	10	D	15	D

2 marks questions

1. His inability to be with his wife while she was vomiting outside the room.
2. She was thinking about the contradiction between the realities and the official report of the Japanese army
3. She thought that –if a man be so cruel to a woman in his power, that he would beat her, than would he not be cruel to enemy.
4. She noticed deep red scars on his neck, just under the ear
5. It is clear what he ought to do. But he is not doing that what he ought to do

3 marks questions

1. General suggested killing the man - Offered to send assassins -Trick of inward bleeding - Leave the outer partition open

2. wanted to get rid of the man for his wife - his loyalty towards his country - Since operated, could not kill POW
3. Yumi refused to wash - Fierce look of Yumi made Hana afraid - Hana had no option
4. Dr Sadao provided essentials to man - Flashlight to signal - Dressed in Japanese style - Head covered

5 marks questions

1. Key points
 - Hana understood her husband very well
 - Sentimental, pragmatic approach
 - Maintained her dignity
 - Devoted wife
 - Ideal life partner
2. Key Points
 - Sadao's father dreamt of bright future of Japan.
 - He was serious about his son's education and spent infinite pains upon him. For the sake of the best possible medical education, he sent his son to America.
 - As his father would never have received her daughter law unless she had been pure Japanese in her race, Sadao when met Hana did not fall in love until he was sure that she was a Japanese..
 - Their marriage was arranged in the old Japanese way
 - Floor of his room was deeply matted.
 - He would never sit on chair or sleep in a foreign bed in his house.
 - The quilt was covered with flowered silk and the lining was pure white silk.